CHENANGO COUNTY

CHENANGO

In the Center of it All ~ 'Everything Chenango'

Welcome to Chenango County! Like the rest of Central New York, we all look forward to the change of each season, and after the long, cold winter, spring is an unparalleled favorite. The warmer weather allows us to venture into the great outdoors and enjoy the sunshine and a myriad of activities. Revel in a family adventure, explore the trail systems, and travel the picturesque roads to take in our beautiful landscape. Visit our historic spots and take respite in quiet little pubs and restaurants.

What makes us different? The outstanding beauty of our trails, the area lakes and streams, our small-town rural charm, the numerous parks, and most of all - the chance for relaxation no matter what option you choose.

One of our well-deserved great outdoor assets is Bowman Lake State Park. Many campers have described Bowman Lake as a camper's paradise. A rural, natural setting in a section of New York State steeped in folklore and historic tradition. The 35-acre lake, located in the center of the park, is just 16 feet deep at its deepest point. Today, with 11,000 acres of State Department of Environmental Conservation forestland bordering the park, Bowman Lake retains a unique and special wilderness aspect for all to enjoy.

Considered by most as a family-fun vacation spot, campsites are gobbled up fast, and campers come from all over New York State and beyond to spend time in the woodland atmosphere and the remote 660 acres of the large, shaded campsites nestled beneath the lofty trees.

Want more of our outdoors? Another outdoor destination is The Greenway River Trails that started out as the "City of Norwich Greenbelt Park Project". This was envisioned as a public, multi-use, run-walk-bike trail system along the Chenango River within the city limits. We see it as a public destination with an overlook to sit, relax, watch the river, observe wildlife, and just enjoy the outdoors - right within the City of Norwich.

From the Greenway River Trails, the Greenway Conservancy group has moved to another location to expand a new outdoor arena that is in the making. What was previously coined as the "Stone Quarry" has now become a cherished recreational destination for hiking, biking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, mountain biking, exploration and storytelling by generations of Norwich children and families. The additional quarry property that was acquired by the group forms the centerpiece of a community forest and recreational area that is open to the public. Paramount in making this initiative come alive are the miles of new trails for favorite outdoor activities and the wide-open spaces that will help to increase the resources that will be of value in our area and add to the economic impact of all of Chenango County.

For nearly a century, observers watched the forests of New York State from more than 100 fire towers perched atop the highest peaks, searching for the dangerous, telltale signs of forest fires. There were 19 fire towers in the Catskill region and 52 in the Adirondacks.

We are in DEC region 7 in Chenango County and the Berry Hill Fire Tower is located near McDonough State Forest here in Chenango County. The tower is open to the public year-round from sunrise to sunset. At an elevation of 1,960 feet, the fire tower is one of the highest points in Chenango County and the view stretches into the counties of Broome, Cortland, Delaware, Madison, Oneida, Onondaga, Otsego, and Tioga. We encourage you to pack a lunch, drink, and proper equipment and hike to a fire tower where the views are spectacular no matter what season you visit.

Prefer indoor activities? They also abound here, and we have the Northeast Classic Car Museum, The Chenango County Historical Museum, art galleries, cultural performances and many shops and small businesses that will cater to you and your family.

It's true we don't have amusement parks, casino's, sports stadiums, or an ocean view. What we do have is natural beauty, rivers, lakes, arts and theatre, museums, live music, hiking trails, wildlife and miles and miles of state land. Those of us who live here every day take for granted the beauty and attractions all around us. We want everyone to know how privileged we are here in Chenango County.

For 'Everything Chenango' stop and get your tourism information at Commerce Chenango, 15 South Broad Street in Norwich during normal business hours or by calling 607-334-1400 or by going to the website - www.chenangotourism.com.

Kassi Valazza with Sequoia

7:00 pm

There is a cult-like fascination growing around Kassi Valazza following the self-release of her 2019 debut album Dear Dead Days and her surprise 2022 EP Highway Sounds. She is seated squarely at the vanguard of new American songwriters strengthening and broadening the sound of country music as she tours with celebrated acts such as Melissa Carper and Riddy Arman. The Southwestern native resides in Portland, a hotbed of songwriters producing albums that both bear the torch and bend the arc of American roots music, where she recently signed with Fluff & Gravy Records — a label known for launching Anna Tivel and Margo Cilker.

Stone Quarry Hill Art Park

Cazenovia, NY 13035
315-655-3196
www.StoneQuarryHillArtPark.org

Stone Quarry Hill Art Park, one of the first outdoor sculpture parks in the country, sits atop a breathtaking rural landscape of upstate New York hills, meadows and forests. Tucked into these elements of natural beauty are Stone Quarry's heart: original, one-of-a-kind works of art. The Art Park serves a dual mission: preservation of the land, and to the creation and exhibition of sculpture, inspired by the relationship between art and nature. Sculptures are placed throughout the more than 100 acre site: in fields and woodlands, along hedgerows and trails and beside or even in ponds or gardens. Most are created especially for the Art Park, and many are designed to dissolve eventually back into nature. The park reflects the dynamism of both art and nature, as every exhibition brings new work and every season takes some away. The Art Park is open year-round, every day from dawn to dusk. It is located one mile east of Cazenovia, NY, off of U.S. Route 20. See the website for directions and lots of details on its art exhibitions and artists.
